Explore
Welcome to Creede, CO! Check in right next door at The Creede Hotel, recently named a National Historical Designated Property. Once downtown, explore the many shops, restaurants, galleries, and views in our unique mountain town.

Imagine
Creede Rep has performed shows in rotating repertory since 1966. You can see up to three shows in a single day! See Rodgers + Hammerstein’s "Cinderella" at 1pm and "Clue: On Stage" at 7pm, both at our Mainstage Theatre. Then head down to The Ruth Humphreys Brown Theatre (The Ruth) for "Boomtown! Improv" at 9:30pm.
SUN, JULY 2

Art
Creede might have more galleries per capita than any other city and is home to internationally acclaimed watercolorist, Stephen Quiller of Quiller Gallery.

Catch a Show
Catch a matinee of "Clue: On Stage" at 1pm, then the world premiere of "Mountain Octopus" by Beth Kander at 7pm at The Ruth.

MON, JULY 3

History
Colorado’s State Mining Competition is held in Creede on July 3 & 4 every year. Witness such events as single/double jacking, mucking, and more! Events begin at 9am next to Basham Park.

Dance
At 8pm, head to The Elks Lodge to dance your cares away at the Creede Elk’s annual dance party!

TUES, JULY 4

Celebrate
Creede’s annual 4th of July Parade begins at 10am on Main Street. This year’s theme: The True Silver Lining.

Magic & Music
See Rodgers & Hammerstein's "Cinderella," a show for the whole family. The show starts early at 6pm so you will be out in town for fireworks south of town.

Bull & Barrel
ChuteOut Rodeo at the Fairgrounds beginning at 6:30pm.
